

Warehouse Botany has raised thousands for charity.

Photo supplied

SEASON OF GIVING

Burn group feeling the love

The Burn Support Group has expressed its thanks and "sincere appreciation of the extremely generous donation of $3000 supplied from the Warehouse Botany". Funds which have been raised through the community boxes with the support of manager Clarke Hill.

The money will go towards the Children's Burn Camp taking place January 25-29.

Camp Awhi is a free camp for 7-17-years-old from throughout New Zealand who have sustained burn injuries.

"It is through the generosity of such organisations we are able to assist and support burn survivors and their families," BSG administrator Michele Henry said.

"If anyone expresses interest in the camp and believes they know of or could benefit, contact us."

➤ Phone Michele 270-0640, 021 863-670, www.burns.org.nz